Hospitality Center delegation to Jackson

by JAKE JACOB

A delegation of elected officials and representatives of the I-10 Committee of the Gulf Coast Council, led by its chairman, Charlie McCarty of Ocean Springs, will meet with state-highway director John Babb, on Tuesday, at his office in Jackson.

Hancock County Chamber of Commerce said Friday the delegation will include members of their organization, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, led by Alton A. Kellar, president; Mayor Larry Bennett of Bay St. Louis; and, if possible, State Senator Martin Smith, State Representative J.P. Compretta, Mayor John Longo, Jr., of Waveland.

Prior to meeting with Babb, the delegation is to be briefed on affairs within the highway department, a briefing expected to include details of financing and current expenditures.

The controversy over the hospitality center has raged since 1972 when the highway department began construction on a center located to the south of Interstate Highway 10 between State Highways 107 and 609. This location was judged too far to the east by Gulf Coast officials and business concerns who instead favored a site west of the 607 exit.

Preconstruction conference held on Main Street project

by JERRY WHITTLE

A pre-construction conference was held last Friday morning at City Hall to discuss the forth coming Main St. Improvement Project for the City of Bay St. Louis. Attending the meeting were officials from Bay St. Louis, representatives of Burk and Associates, the project contractor and representatives from various companies involved in the planned project.

The meeting was conducted by Robert Rice of Burk and Associates, who handle engineering and planning work for the city. City officials attending were Mayor Larry Bennett, Councilmen James Thriffley and Fred Wagner, Street Superintendent Charles Black and Chief of Police Douglas Williams.

Also present for the meeting were Howard Ronsheimer and John W. Holtgreve, Jr. of Burk and Associates; M.J. Williams and T.E. Bond of Williams Paving Co., the general contractors on the project; W.R. Nunnery, Jr. and M.J. Necaise of Mississippi Power Co.; Joe Davis and Carl Price of the Mississippi Highway Department and E.J. Bievenue of South Central Bell.

A number of expected problems were discussed by the group and several solutions were worked out to the satisfaction of all involved in the construction.

Two major problems were discussed at length during the session. One being the detour or alternate route to be used while the project is underway. After discussing three possible routes (St.

John, De Montluzin and Easterbrook), Councilman Thriffley suggested the use of Dunbar Avenue. The suggestion met with approval and the route will be established as soon as construction is started.

The other item of concern was the relocation of power and telephone poles along the Main Street route. Rice said the contract noted Mississippi Power had given an estimate of 10 days needed in which to relocate their poles; South Central Bell's estimate was set at some

Health Dept. grants HNC conditional permit

by JAKE JACOB

A conditional certificate of approval to operate Hancock North Central High School has been issued by the Mississippi State Board of Health subject to specified renovations and the construction of a new lunchroom complex during the school year.

The certificate, written by Louis Fernandez, county health sanitation officer, on Aug. 18, bears notification to the effect that its issuance is "conditional" and is "Based on improvements outlined in attached letter."

Further, it clearly states the certificate's authority does not extend beyond the 1977-78 school year.

The concerned letter is to Fernandez, and was written by Terrell Randolph, county education superintendent on Aug. 17.

Randolph, in the letter, states that renovations and corrective actions taken to comply with the terms of a directive issued by Fernandez prior to the closure of school for summer recess (at which time it was stated a new health certificate would not be issued until corrective measures were taken) include:

Painting of all restrooms;
Repair and replacement of all bathroom (restroom) fixtures, where needed;

County schools to get oil lease $'s windfall

by JAKE JACOB

The Saga Oil Company, with a high bid of $173,636.93 for mineral rights to 575 acres of 16th Section school lands lying to the south of Interstate 10, may have provided solution to the county's continuing shortage of classroom space at all of its three schools.

The bid, accepted Friday by the state mineral lease commission in Jackson, will be paid to the state and refunded to Hancock County during the January session of the Mississippi Legislature.

State Representative J.P. Compretta made the information known late the same day, adding that he would introduce any enabling legislation required for the smooth transfer of the funds.

County Superintendent of Education

Terrell Randolph said that although he had not had time to inform his board of the unexpected windfall, undoubtedly they would concur in utilizing the money for construction of the much needed classrooms.

He said the money could be employed as matching funds for credits held by the system with the State Educational Finance Commission (EFC) on a 50-50 basis.

Unless additional sales tax allocations are made to the EFC this will be the last year matching funds will be available to school districts for capital improvements until 1983.

Subject to satisfactory sale of $13 million in state school bonds, the county - as of July 1, 1977, has an entitlement of $472,770 in EFC credits.

Of this amount, $129,000 is being used as matching funds to the EDA grant for construction of a new lunch room complex at Hancock North Central, and restrooms at Gulfview gymnasium, Lakeshore. A further $49,000 has been allocated to pay for renovations to existing lunchroom and other needed areas at HNC.

The balance, some $294,770, will be more than adequate to ensure the 50-50 match for classroom construction upon receipt of the oil lease money.

Randolph, who had barely had time to review the action when asked of his intentions concerning the 16th Section income bonanza, said he estimated the bid represented a payment of around $302 per acre.

Projecting such bid totals to other school lands having mineral rights still in possession of the county, Randolph said lease action could result in an income of $1 million to the system.

Working together

We can remember, not very long ago, that when a house caught fire just outside the city limits, no fire truck would respond. Of course, the reason was because it couldn't because, the fire was outside city limits.

Today that is not the case. No matter where a fire is located in our county, and is reported, firefighting units from throughout the county respond and render what ever assistance is needed. We do have many fire companies and the majority are volunteers.

The people that were responsible for the formation of the volunteer fire companies should be commended. They have been many, who have fought every inch of the way to have a fire unit for their area. And the best thing of all, is the fact that they continue to fight to improve their equipment, because it gives them a better tool to fight their enemy, fire.

One tool that has been very effective is "working together." Each fire company has an agreement with the others throughout the county to help each other.

The beauty of the whole thing is that these men, which most are volunteers, are your friends and neighbors who volunteer their time and effort in trying to help you protect your property. They attend training classes, attend meetings, learn everything they possibly can about fighting fires.

We think it is high time to give them the praise and credit that they deserve. And be sure to congratulate the ones responsible for the "working together" agreements.

When ever you are asked to give a little help, whether it be financial or physical, to a volunteer fire department, and you are able, remember, it could be your home they save from being destroyed by a fire. There have been many times when a brush fire, and we have had many this year, was put out before it reached a home.

Firemen are the people you at times forget about, until the time you need them. Let them all know, the volunteers and paid firemen that we appreciate the services they render to Hancock County.

three weeks. Rice later asked if the companies felt they could abide by the estimates given. The representatives said they felt they could meet the time period, but wanted to talk with superiors before giving a commitment. Rice said he would not sign a work order for Mayor Bennett unless all those concerned gave their approval. After discussing the matter, the representatives said they felt it would be better to wait until they had a chance to talk with their superiors. It was estimated by Rice that work would start between the first and 15th of September, provided there were no further problems.

A summary of the work planned on the street calls for a new four foot sidewalk, repaving and widening the street to 26 feet (curb to curb), modernization of the street lighting, and a drainage system with pipe ranging from 12 to 27 inches.

Williams was awarded the contract on the project after entering the low bid of $147,766.20.

Work will start 10 days after the work order is signed and the contractor has 90 working days in which to complete the project. A working was defined as a day in which the weather permitted workmen to complete seven hours on a major work item. Any time less than the seven hours per day would not be counted as a work day.

Mayor Bennett issued the following statement to the citizens who will be effected by the construction on Main Street:

"We realize the construction work will create an inconvenience from time to time for some of our citizens. We would ask for their understanding and patience during this period because we know their regular routine will be interrupted at certain periods. You may rest assured we will make every effort to see that the project is finished as orderly and quickly as possible. The improvements to Main Street is something that has been needed for a long time and we are sure the people are looking forward to the completion of this project. If they consider that the project will be a great improvement to their residential area and also for the entire city, the inconveniences will not seem so great."

Rice said there would be times when home owners would not be able to drive to their homes, but would have to park and walk a short distance (estimated at about a block). Detour signs will be installed around the area to limit traffic within the section to local traffic only (traffic going to homes along Main Street).

Councilman Wagner suggested the contractor and engineer advise Mayor Bennett denoting the times the streets would be closed to all traffic and return let the mayor write each citizen in the area a letter explaining the expected time when the traffic flow would return.

What I saw on my way home Saturday evening was a mosquito control truck spraying. I had just mentioned the fact the mosquitos were bad and no one seemed to be doing anything about them. I have seen the truck several other times, but the mosquitos still seem to be around.

As a suggestion to the Kiln Volunteer Fire Department. It was a tragic thing a Seabee being killed on the construction of their building. We respectfully suggest consideration be given to naming their fire station The Louis D. Nichols Memorial Fire Hall - Kiln VFD.

It was good to see the Gun and Rod Club giving their unanimous support for the proposed marina. We also like the place they recommend for it's construction. I have talked to numerous folks about the location and only about four have had objections to it's being built at the end of Washington. We have always been told that the majority should rule.

There was good news about the Bay's get tough policy on people dumping garbage in litter barrels. The barrels are for litter only and not garbage. A few fines and jail sentences will eliminate that problem very fast.

Garfield Ladner Memorial Fishing Pier was the place to be last Saturday for kids. The ones there really enjoyed the Jaycee's Annual Fishing Rodeo. The citizens of Waveland should be proud of their Jaycee Club.

Chief makes change for school traffic

Attention vehicles in area of Necaise Ave. and Easterbrook St.

In order to curtail some of the congestion on Necaise Ave., around St. Rose School, when children are coming and leaving school, Chief Williams has made a few changes in that area.

Parents who are picking up their children at St. Rose are to travel north on Necaise Ave. both times, picking up and leaving.

At no time will parents be allowed to leave or pick up their children on the West side of Necaise Ave. in front of school.

There will be a "Do Not Enter Or One Way Traffic" sign at Necaise and Easterbrook during time of pick up and delivery.

Anyone entering one way traffic during designated time will be classed as a violator and will be treated as such.

The purpose of this sign may be interpreted as follows: Maybe for some reason or another one child gets out before another, parents who are not waiting for their child can move out to the left, checking to the rear without worrying about on coming traffic.

United Way sets 1977 goal

by May Beyer

The 1977 Campaign of the United Way of Hancock County opens Sept. 1, to coincide with similar drives held throughout the country to solicit funds for human needs, with the one National Motto - "Give the United Way, it works for us all."

Our United Way (formerly the United Fund) was organized in September of 1964 by the people of Hancock County to raise money for worthy charitable, service and youth organizations which give assistance to those in our community who need help.

The goal for the 1977 campaign is $40,000 and the worthy agencies supported by the fund are: Senior Citizen Programs, Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) Hancock County Emergency Relief Fund, American Red Cross, Hancock County Chapter, Gulf Coast Mental Health Center, Catholic Social Services, Gulfside Boys Home, Girl Scouts, Gulf Pines Council, Boy Scouts, Cypress District, Hancock County Blood Bank, Goodwill Industries, Fireman's Doll and Toy Fund, the U.S.O. (Worldwide).

Our citizens are asked to give their fair share through mail solicitation and personal calls made by our fine volunteers, who give of their time to make the campaign a success. We are not a select group. The United Way belongs to us all for giving, caring and sharing with those in need. This is what living is all about, and in order to enjoy a full and happy life we must be concerned about the welfare of those in need. None of us is immune to misfortune. - The recipient could be you.

Raising $40,000 in our small community is no easy task, but it can be done if we all work together and give our fair share. We did it before - twelve times. We can do it again.

CONTRACT SIGNED-Members of the Board of Trustees signed the construction contract Friday to repair damage caused by the May 19th fire at First Baptist Church in Bay St. Louis. Perry Gibson (seated, L.), President of the Board of Trustees, signs the contract of approximately $163,000 as George P. Hopkins, Jr. of Gulfport, the contractor, looks on.

Standing are (L-R) Dr. B.L. Ramsey, Trustee Vice-President; M.L. Hill, Trustee Treasurer; Judge Ruble Griffin, Trustee Secretary; Fred Wagner, Architect; and Rev. Nathan Barber, Pastor. Rev. Barber said the church would be restored to basically the same condition at the time of the fire, with a few minor renovations.

INSURANCE SETTLEMENT-Dick Koshab(R) of Hancock Insurance Agency presents a check for $173,502.23 to Perry Gibson, President of the Trustees for the First Baptist Church in Bay St. Louis. The check was the insurance settlement for the church which was damaged by fire on May 16th.

Working together

We can remember, not very long ago, that when a house caught fire just outside the city limits, no fire truck would respond. Of course, the reason was because it couldn't because, the fire was outside city limits.

Today that is not the case. No matter where a fire is located in our county, and is reported, firefighting units from throughout the county respond and render what ever assistance is needed. We do have many fire companies and the majority are volunteers.

The people that were responsible for the formation of the volunteer fire companies should be commended. They have been many, who have fought every inch of the way to have a fire unit for their area. And the best thing of all, is the fact that they continue to fight to improve their equipment, because it gives them a better tool to fight their enemy, fire.

One tool that has been very effective is "working together." Each fire company has an agreement with the others throughout the county to help each other.

The beauty of the whole thing is that these men, which most are volunteers, are your friends and neighbors who volunteer their time and effort in trying to help you protect your property. They attend training classes, attend meetings, learn everything they possibly can about fighting fires.

We think it is high time to give them the praise and credit that they deserve. And be sure to congratulate the ones responsible for the "working together" agreements.

When ever you are asked to give a little help, whether it be financial or physical, to a volunteer fire department, and you are able, remember, it could be your home they save from being destroyed by a fire. There have been many times when a brush fire, and we have had many this year, was put out before it reached a home.

Firemen are the people you at times forget about, until the time you need them. Let them all know, the volunteers and paid firemen that we appreciate the services they render to Hancock County.

three weeks. Rice later asked if the companies felt they could abide by the estimates given. The representatives said they felt they could meet the time period, but wanted to talk with superiors before giving a commitment. Rice said he would not sign a work order for Mayor Bennett unless all those concerned gave their approval. After discussing the matter, the representatives said they felt it would be better to wait until they had a chance to talk with their superiors. TYRONE BROOKS, National Communications Director, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, has been named Outstanding Young Man of America by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce. A native of Warrington, Georgia, who met SCLC founder Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in 1963, joining the movement shortly thereafter, Brooks was cited for his work in the field of human rights and the dedication to his ideals. He was informed of his selection in a letter signed by Douglas Blankenship, chairman, Advisory Board of Outstanding Young Men of America. In part the letter said, "This is an honor of which you can be very proud, and we want to extend our wholehearted congratulations to you. A man of your character is truly an asset to his family, as well as to his community, state, and nation. Brooks worked with several local members of the SCLC when he was first officially engaged by that organization in 1967 as its field secretary.

CB replacing "Call Boxes?" Citizens band radios in cars are replacing those emergency call boxes installed along some of the nation's freeways to help drivers in distress.

CB is a winner with cruising teens - That old high school pastime, cruising, has taken on new meaning with the rising popularity of the CB radio.

CB slang and the radio's anonymity brings out the Romeo in every young man which is why, said 17-year-old Dan Corevelli, "all of a sudden you've seen CB antennas popping up - bing, bing, bing." "You can get up your courage more with a radio," said Debbie's 18-year-old sister, Terri.

Regular cruisers say much of what goes on is chaperoned by parents who eavesdrop on base station radios or on receivers in their own cars.

"Attention CB clubs," to be included in the upcoming CB Break National Club Directory, be sure to send your name and address, and the geographic region of the country that you serve. Write Mike Wendland, CB Break, Box 173, The Detroit News, Detroit, Michigan 48231.

BSL student participates in conference

Kathleen Louise Koch of Bay St. Louis recently participated in a Counseling and Pre-Registration conference at The University of Mississippi.

The purpose of the series of five-day conferences for high school graduates and transfer students is to give new students a preview of life at Ole Miss.

Professional counselors aid students in selecting courses of study and students are allowed to pre-register for the coming fall semester.

Counseling and Pre-Registration conference participants are also given an opportunity to take part in summer campus activities and to meet students, faculty members and Ole Miss officials.

Participation in college-level training is greater under the current GI Bill than under either the World War II or Korean Conflict programs, according to the Veterans Administration.

TYRONE BROOKS, National Communications Director, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, has been named Outstanding Young Man of America by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce. A native of Warrington, Georgia, who met SCLC founder Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in 1963, joining the movement shortly thereafter, Brooks was cited for his work in the field of human rights and the dedication to his ideals. He was informed of his selection in a letter signed by Douglas Blankenship, chairman, Advisory Board of Outstanding Young Men of America. In part the letter said, "This is an honor of which you can be very proud, and we want to extend our wholehearted congratulations to you. A man of your character is truly an asset to his family, as well as to his community, state, and nation. Brooks worked with several local members of the SCLC when he was first officially engaged by that organization in 1967 as its field secretary.

CB replacing "Call Boxes?" Citizens band radios in cars are replacing those emergency call boxes installed along some of the nation's freeways to help drivers in distress?

CB is a winner with cruising teens - That old high school pastime, cruising, has taken on new meaning with the rising popularity of the CB radio.

CB slang and the radio's anonymity brings out the Romeo in every young man which is why, said 17-year-old Dan Greynelli, "all of a sudden you've seen CB antennas popping up - bing, bing, bing." "You can get up your courage more with a radio," said Debbie's 18-year-old sister, Terri.

Regular cruisers say much of what goes on is chaperoned by parents who eavesdrop on base station radios or on receivers in their own cars. "Attention CB clubs:" to be included in the upcoming CB Break National Club Directory, be sure to send your name and address, and the geographic region of the country that you serve. The purpose of the series of five-day conferences for high school graduates and transfer students is to give new students a preview of life at Ole Miss.

Counseling and Pre-Registration conference participants are also given an opportunity to take part in summer campus activities and to meet students, faculty members and Ole Miss officials.

8-SEA COAST ECHO-AUGUST 21, 1977

Bay Catholic Elementary announces lunch policy

Bay St. Louis' Catholic Elementary School today announced its policy for free and reduced price meals, for children unable to pay the full price of meal served under the National School Lunch.

Local school officials have adopted the following family size income criteria for determining eligibility:

disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining in the application, and that deliberate misrepresentation of information may subject the applicant to prosecution under applicable State and criminal statutes.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for them, it should contact the school.

Under the provisions of the policy the principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If he wishes to make a formal appeal he may make a request either orally or in writing to Rev. Msgr. Gregory Johnson, Our Lady of the Gulf Church, Bay St. Louis, Telephone No. 467-6509 or Rev. Borgia Aubespain, SVD, St. Rose de Lima Church, Bay St. Louis, Telephone No. 467-7347, for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size changes, the family should contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the children of the family eligible for reduced price meals, or for additional benefits such as free meals and milk if the family income falls at or below the levels shown above.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, or national origin.

Family Size	Yearly	Monthly
1	$1,200	$100
2	$1,600	$133
3	$2,000	$167
4	$2,400	$200
5	$2,800	$233
6	$3,200	$267
7	$3,600	$300
8	$4,000	$333
9	$4,400	$367
10	$4,800	$400

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced price meals or free milk. An extra one-half pint of free milk is available to those who are eligible for free meals. In addition, families not meeting these criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year. To discourage the possibility of misrepresentation, the application forms contain a statement above the space for signature certifying that all information furnished in the application is true and correct. An additional statement is added to warn that the application is being made in connection with the receipt of Federal funds, that school officials may, for cause, verify the information

State survey shows school law approval

Less than four percent of Mississippians disapprove of a school state attendance law, according to a recent statewide poll conducted by The University of Mississippi Department of Journalism.

When asked about the state's new attendance law, 80 percent of those questioned approved of the 1977 school legislation, and 20 percent disapproved.

Almost half of those who approved the attendance law said counseling of parents and student was the best approach. However, compulsory attendance of all school-age children was favored by 33 percent, and 16 percent believed a combination of the two approaches would be best.

But most of those who disapproved of the new school law did so because they believed the age limit of 13 was not high enough. Forty-one percent said the law should be applied to the 14-17 age group, and 41 percent indicated it should apply through high school.

The controversial school attendance law, repealed 21 years ago in the wake of imminent school integration, received support from all segments of those polled. And those who had not completed high school, both black and white, were more likely to favor some form of compulsory attendance than others.

Confirming the school attendance law responses were answers to another question in which 92 percent of those interviewed said an education was very important for Mississippi children, and three percent said it was not very important.

State Senator Jack Tucker of Lumberton, chairman of the Senate Committee on Education and a key sponsor of the attendance legislation, said the law passed for what he called "a number of good reasons."

The counseling route was chosen, he said, because it was more flexible than an outright law to force something on people.

"This law is based on good, hard common sense," he said, referring to children who do not want to go to school and the drawbacks of having older children in the lower grades.

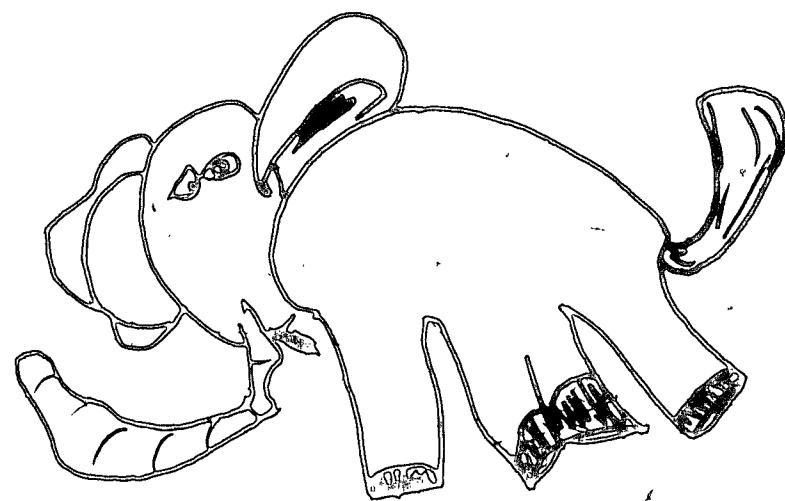

Last year, three percent or 16,716 of the students enrolled in the state's public schools dropped out for a variety of reasons. The Mississippi Poll also found that eight out of 10 Mississippians interviewed said they believed a school attendance law of some sort has been needed in the past.

Overtime

by RANDY LANKFORD

With the coming of the end of the baseball season comes the world series. The gala baseball series that captures the enthusiasm of even the hard core apathist. This year's series may be the best ever if the pennant races are any indication. The nip-and-tuck struggle looks like it will go to the wire.

Los Angeles is the only team that has a relatively safe lead in its division. With 12 games on the Cincinnati Reds, the Dodgers seem in fine shape to finish the season on top. From then on the races get tight.

In the National League East Philadelphia is on top of the three-way struggle for supremacy this week. With 4½ games on Pittsburgh and seven on St. Louis, the Phillies have a shaky margin. The American League race is entirely too close for comfort.

Boston is three and a half games up in the American East with New York and Baltimore in hot pursuit. The narrowest of races is in the American West with the Texas Rangers on top by a scant half a game.

Being a Texas fan, it is entirely too close a race to suit me. Only half a game back, Minnesota is anything but out of the races for the pennant.

As baseball seasons go, this has been a rough one. There has been mention that there are nearly as many fights in baseball this year as there are during a hockey season.

The tight races make the long, hot summer seem even longer and hotter as the season wears on. There are plenty of games to be played and it is still anyone's race.

By the time the eventual pennant winners make it through the playoffs, they will have truly earned their spot in a series for the World's Championship.

Other sports news notes that some professional golfers have been cited for the grooves in their clubs. A Professional Golfers Association official recently went on a checking spree and found that some touring pros have clubs that are illegal. The grooves in the faces of the clubs have been deemed too wide and the clubs have been thrown out.

That's it! Keep those sneaky players that would stoop to such a low deed in their place. Don't let them get away with anything. Why, the next thing you know, the cleats on their shoes will be too large and you know what that could mean.

How much difference could a centimeter difference in the width of a groove mean? About as much as a golf spike being a centimeter too long.

Finally, thanks to coach Irvin Favre and his Hancock North Central football players for being so cooperative last week as I covered their football physicals with a lady doctor. Thanks also go to Dr. McGehee for letting me attend what could have been closed procedures.

SCLC prexy challenges film makers

Joseph F. Lowrey, acting president and chairman of the board, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, (SCLC), speaking from the group's headquarters in Atlanta, Ga., has expressed concern over certain production facets of a film now being produced covering the life of Dr. Martin Luther King.

Lowrey said that while he is pleased about the film's production, he is worried over the non-utilization of sufficient, knowledgeable black people in its production.

"We are pleased a film about Dr. King is being developed which, properly and accurately written and produced, can provide increased understanding and appreciation for the most significant non-violent movement in American history. It can introduce to millions of youth in visual and unapologetic manner the warm, strong, and effective leadership of our founding president, the late Martin Luther King, Jr. It can revive for millions of others the excitement, joy and pain of those years when King and SCLC led the nation through a cleansing of the soul, when the non-violent philosophy of revolution unfolded into living reality; when millions of black people found a new sense of personal worth; when the ugliness of racial oppression and segregation was weighed on the scales of human decency and found wanting. In that sense and toward such an objective, we commend and support such a project," Lowrey said.

He said, "We do, however, on the basis of what we have seen and read thus far about the film in process, have growing concerns that the history we hold sacred may not be interpreted with the accuracy and with the sensitivity needed when relating to the historicity of the black movement and the black experience. SCLC, therefore, is morally bound to en-

Excavation of an ancient battle site in Syria during August will be led by Dr. Frances James, professor of Anthropology at Ole Miss, and Peter Farr of the University of London. The site, Tell Nebi Mend, is one of the most important sites in the ancient Near East and should reveal much about ancient life there, according to Dr. James.

phatically urge those who are responsible for this film to take immediate steps to engage the assistance of black writers, producers, and directors; and to establish a panel of advisers who are thoroughly knowledgeable about the movement. These steps would assure sensitivity and insure authenticity.

"We are entirely aware that the film is not yet a finished product and therefore cannot be finally judged yet this is the very fact that makes possible the amendments we suggest. Such amendments would allay the fears engendered by what we have seen and read thus far and facilitate a hasten the completion of what we want to be a great film, sensitive and authentic.

PRC practicing for opener

POPLARVILLE - Sixty-eight players were present recently when the Pearl River Junior College Wildcats began their fall practice.

J. C. Arban, head coach of the defending Mississippi Junior College champions, said 10 players did not show up, however only three of those players would have seen much action during the year.

"We didn't work too hard this morning," Arban said, "we spent most of the time getting loose and running through formations."

According to Arban everyone was working very hard with a lot of spirit and enthusiasm. As expected, the offensive backfield was impressive with their quickness and agility.

The Wildcats will have no less than eight running backs to call on for action during the year.

Jeff Davis, sophomore quarterback from Hattiesburg, is the starting signal caller. "Jeff looked real good," Arban said, "in fact he was the only quarterback that executed very well."

Trying for the second quarterback slot will be four freshman and according to Arban, he does not know which will get the nod.

"None of the others executed very well today, but that's probably because they were nervous and unaccustomed to our system. In the race for backup QB are David Wyman, Morgan City, La.; Jose Howard, Poplarville; and John Chambliss, Beeson Academy; and Gregg Pittman, Columbia.

Memphis McAbee, Petal; James Smith, Pearl River Central and Jesse Carter, Purvis add speed and experience to the backfield. Henry Smith of Poplarville and Bill Smith of Pearl River Central and Jeff January of Petal will be seeing a lot of action.

man that have good moves and size," Arban said.

"I'll be able to tell more about the linemen when we get the pads on and start hitting," Hitting will start for the Wildcats Tuesday afternoon, with sophomores Winston Herndon, Poplarville; Tom Longo, St.

Sports

In the defensive backfield, Ellis Spann of Hattiesburg and Paul Montgomery were cited by Arban as picking up where they left off last season.

Charles Pittman of Columbia, Mr. Versatile for the Wildcats can play in the backfield or at linebacker.

Dodd Lee of Picayune and Bobby Rankin of Hattiesburg looked good catching the football the first day of practice. However, Arban mentioned that his quarterbacks were not getting the ball to the receivers very sharply.

"As far as the line goes, I can't make any predictions at this time other than we have several sophomores that are ready to play and some fresh-

Stanislaus, and Kevin Avin, Picayune, looking good.

Two-a-day practice will continue this week with a full scale scrimmage scheduled for Saturday afternoon after the press and picture taking session that morning.

Early talk around the league have the Wildcats, Jones and Gulf Coast once again in the race for the championship. Southwest, Hinds and East Central are predicting much better years.

Pearl River Junior College's first game will be against the Northwest Rangers in the Dobie Holden Stadium, Saturday, Sept. 3 at 8 p.m.

Reserved season tickets are still on sale at the Pearl River Business Office. For more information call 795-4528.
